

ABOUT

Marc André Bachmann, born 1979 in Switzerland is a Zurich based Director of Photography and Photographer.

In 1999 he successfully completed his apprenticeship in Photography. While carrying out his own projects by travelling through Central America and stays in the US, Marc Bachmann became more and more interested in Cinematography. In 2000, He started to work as a Cameraman for television productions. Since 2006, Marc Bachmann has been working as Director of Photography on many commercials, imagefilms and documentaries in Switzerland and around the world. The photography of Marc Bachmann is strongly influenced by Film. He often presents series of photographs like the film is build-up in sequences. This way of telling stories convey his pictures a unique look.
